

Project Report submission to District Collector

Topic : Cracker Shop Management : A challenge before Disaster Management system of Parbhani district.

Objectives :

- ☞ Application of subject knowledge in the sake of the welfare of the society.
- ☞ To aware district disaster management system about the threats from Cracker Shops.

Abstract

The department of Public Administration undertook a syllabus related self finance research project on Disaster Management and submitted it to the District Collector. The Title of the project was Cracker shop management: A Challenge before Disaster Management system of Parbhani District. The Research project identified various threats from cracker market and suggested some remedies to the District Disaster Management system of Parbhani district. The above said project was a teacher student's initiative. The Project was appreciated by the District Collector.

Duration : 6 month

Researcher: Students of Department

Total No. of Participants: 10 students